11:10

IV. South Carolina Ports Authority – Growth and Expansion through the Pandemic and Beyond – Mr. Mike Hoffman, General Manager of Intermodal Operations, South Carolina Ports Authority

Briefing: The South Carolina Ports Authority continues to advance infrastructure projects and attract new business, securing its position as the preferred U.S. container port ahead of an incredibly significant year. SC Ports Authority has seen great success with its rail-served inland ports. Inland Port Greer and Inland Port Dillon expand the port's reach inland, providing access to U.S. population centers and global markets through the Port of Charleston. Mr. Hoffman will speak on the importance of the state's Inland Ports, current trends, and plans for future expansion.

Consideration of the 2021 Annual Performance Report for the 2018-2022 SC Appalachian Region Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) – Mr. Don Godbey, Chair, Regional Economic Development Committee and Ms. Brooke Ferguson, Economic Development Director (A link to the report is located on the ACOG website at www.scacog.org. The link below will also direct you to the document or you can request an individual copy by contacting Brooke Ferguson at bferguson@scacog.org.

Briefing: The CEDS is required by the US Economic Development Administration. In order for a project to receive EDA funding, it must be consistent with the regional CEDS. Likewise, CEDS consistency is considered in grant application reviews by other agencies, such as the Appalachian Regional Commission. As the EDA designated economic development district for the SC Appalachian Region, ACOG is responsible for the plan. Mr. Godbey and Ms. Ferguson will provide an overview of the 2021 CEDS Annual Performance Report and will present a recommendation for action from the Economic Development Committee.
